[redacted] telephoned me on 14 April and, pursuant to DCI's instruction, I informed him that the DCI remembered him and asked me to convey his very best wishes to [redacted]

I also expressed the Director's regrets that his schedule was such that he would be unable to see [redacted] during his brief visit in Washington. I conveyed Mr. Dulles' suggestion that [redacted] take the time to put down his ideas and proposals on Germany in a memo and send it in to Mr. Dulles and Mr. Dulles would be very glad to give them every consideration as well as bring them to the attention of other appropriate officials.
